

English Literary Studies

Are you interested in studying journalism at Uni?

Are you wanting to study an English rich course?

Students learn skills and strategies of critical thinking and the needs to interpret text. Through shared and individual study of texts, students will explore different opinions of those in the world today. Students have the opportunity to develop ideas and find evidence to support their own personal views.

SACE Credits

20 Credits

Assessment

Responding to texts
Creating texts
Comparative text study
Critical reading

Subject Length

Full year

Prerequisites

N/A

Additional Information

This subject can be used as one of the compulsory English requirements of the SACE. This is a literacy rich subject that requires students to read, interpret and articulate responses using high levels of language.

SACE Link

<https://www.sace.sa.edu.au/studying/subjects/english-literary-studies>