

Civics and Citizenship

Do you want to learn about Law?

Are you interested in the High Court?

This course develops students' understanding of Australia's system of government through comparison with another system of government in the Asian region. Students examine Australia's roles and responsibilities within the international context, such as its involvement with the United Nations. Students also study the purpose and work of the High Court. They investigate the values and practices that enable a democratic society to be sustained.

Assessment

Assessment is ongoing and will focus on inquiry based learning and the analysis of sources. Assessment may include a visual and written comparative essay or source analysis.
