

Social Change

---

Do you want to explore the local, national or global change today?

Do you want to research more about a social issue?

This course offers students the opportunity to explore an area of current local, national or global interest. Students develop their research skills as they inquire deeply into a chosen area of personal passion. Students will manage their own social change project. They analyse the contexts and perspectives surrounding their chosen issue and develop viable solutions for positive change. Students will consider environmental, historical, cultural, social, political, economic and stakeholder interests in designing social action.

Some areas of interest may include (but are not limited to):

- Equality and inclusion
- Race
- Gender
- Poverty
- Homelessness
- Constitutional reform
- Education
- Democracy
- Tourism
- Ethics
- Welfare
- Land rights
- Environmental impact
- International relations or conflict
- Mental health
- Wellbeing
- Globalisation

Assessment

Assessment will be continuous and varied in nature. There will be a variety of assessment pieces that focus on issues analysis, interpreting and communicating data, determining and implementing social action with considered impact, presentation and project management.

Subject Length

1 term

Additional Information

Fieldwork / local excursions